

I believe that cellular phones should not be allowed to be used aboard aircraft. Being in a cramped space with many other people is bad enough without the added annoyance of people using cellular phones.